

The Traditional Post Turkey-Day Ride

November 28, 2008, 9:00AM (sharp)
Granbury, TX

Note: Usual ride leader Mike Reade is out of town but provided some great info + maps so the ride will happen again this year!

When: Friday 11/28, starting at 9:00AM sharp (so be there a bit early)

Where: FM 51 at Brushy Road (approx. 4 miles south of Granbury)
Click here for the entire Ride Map or visit <http://tinyurl.com/5o5zw7>

How long? Full Ride Distance is 75miles. Maps will be provided for everyone. You can cut short or alternate. There are no gas stations/stores on this ride but we'll have a sag car, water, and snacks for everyone!!!!

How Fast? The idea is a no drop ride... it's still off-season!! Be prepared for an 18mph average.

Contact: Stefan Rothe, stefan@rothetraining.com or 512.203.2411

Directions from Fort Worth area: (approx. 45 minute drive from Benbrook)

From either Loop 820 W southbound or I20 westbound, exit HW 377 South / Granbury
Follow 377 to Granbury ~ 20 miles
Pass thru "retail row" (Starbucks on your left!), then exit to 144 (Glen Rose on sign)
Turn RIGHT at the top of the ramp, then immediately LEFT at light on FM51 / Paluxy HW
Follow FM 51 South approx. 4 miles, park in open lot at Brushy Road intersection